

Amy Terry

Amy joined the Kentucky Transportation Center in October 2005 as the Conference Coordinator. She coordinates all workshops for the Roads Scholar and Road Master training programs, On-Demand training requests and the Coaching the Van Driver training program. In addition, she travels throughout the state to provide on-site assistance during workshops.

Education

Lexington Community College, Associate of Arts and Associate of Sciences University of Kentucky, Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing